

NOTES AND NEWS

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program Friday, March 19th, 2010

Week In Review

On Monday, the Renaissance kids made origami basketball hoops and then played with them.

On Tuesday, we baked shamrock cookies which we iced and ate on Wednesday before hunting for Leprechaun gold. We also took advantage of the beautiful weather and let the children play outside as much as they wished this week.

On Friday, the children were entertained by Jamey Turner and his glass harp.

Community Service

Renaissance will hold a Great American Bake Sale for Share Our Strength on Wednesday, March 24th from 4:00 until 7:00.

Share Our Strength is an organization devoted to stamping out childhood hunger, nationally and internationally. In addition to their usual programs, Share Our Strength is working to provide support to children in Haiti and Chile.

The children of Redeemer Renaissance will prepare all of the baked goods for the sale.

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program Recognition Sunday

On Sunday, May 23rd, Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will formally recognize the After-School Program at the 9:45 AM service.

The children are working on a presentation for that morning.

We understand that many of you have Sunday morning commitments, but it is our hope that for that one morning you can arrange to worship with us so that we can have as many children as possible for the presentation.

At 2:00 PM, children that take private music lessons in our program and their teachers will present a recital.

All are invited.
