

NOTES AND NEWS

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program Friday, April 30th, 2010

Week In Review

This week the children of Redeemer Renaissance worked on a top secret project.

They also explored some ways to use recycled materials in art projects, and took advantage of the nice weather later in the week to play outside.

Community Service

In advance of our recognition Sunday on May 23rd, the children of Redeemer Renaissance will be making cookies for a "Cookies for Kids." Bake Sale. The Bake Sale will be held between services on May 23rd.

"Cookies for Kids" is a program that supports pediatric cancer research.

Redeemer Renaissance After-School Program Recognition Sunday Service and Recital

As you know, our big day will be May 23rd. We want you to know that child-care services will be provided in our nursery for both the service and recital.

Fairfax County Has Clarified the Calendar for the Last Week of School

The last day of school will be June 24th and it will be a short day. Redeemer Renaissance will be open in time to receive the children after their 2 ½ hours in school, and from 8:00 AM until 6:15 PM on June 25th. Stay tuned for more information regarding the field trips and activities we are planning for those 2 days.

Change in Piano Teacher

We are sad that we will be saying "good-bye" to Mrs. Ely at the end of this school year. We wish her well, and are envious of all the travel plans she and her husband have made.

We have found a new teacher for next year. Her name is Heather Bingham. Heather has piano and vocal teaching experience at many levels and is an accomplished musician in her own right. You can learn more about Heather at www.heatherbingham.com

McLean Day

Redeemer Renaissance will be at the After-School Childcare Coalition Table for McLean Day. If any of you would like to volunteer to staff that table that day, speak with Roberta.
